

Dear All,

We are pleased to invite submissions for the upcoming issue (Volume 19) of our peer-reviewed journal, Nepalese Horticulture. As part of our mission, we are committed to advancing the frontiers of Horticultural Science by fostering academic exchange across a diverse spectrum of disciplines. Our aim is to deepen the collective understanding and application of horticultural knowledge in both national and global contexts.

Nepalese Horticulture publishes high-quality research in all areas of Horticulture, including but not limited to:

- Crop production technologies and innovations
- Plant physiology and postharvest biology
- Genetics, breeding, and biotechnology
- Plant pathology, entomology, and pest management
- Socioeconomic and policy aspects of horticultural systems

We welcome original research articles, short communications, and invited critical reviews that demonstrate scientific rigor, innovation, and practical relevance.

Submission Deadline: 15 July, 2025

To submit your manuscript(s), please email them to: nepalesehort.journal@gmail.com

All submissions will undergo a single fold peer review process involving at least two subject-matter experts. Our editorial team is committed to ensuring timely, fair, and constructive evaluations. Accepted manuscripts will be published in the forthcoming issue of the journal (Volume 19).

For author guidelines, manuscript formatting instructions, and other publication policies, please visit our website:  Guide to Authors – Nepalese Horticulture

Once published, your article will be freely accessible via both the NepJOL platform and our official journal website:  <https://horticulturenepal.org>

We cordially invite you to consider Nepalese Horticulture as a platform for your next research publication. Your scholarly contributions play a vital role in shaping the future of horticultural science in Nepal and beyond.

Please feel free to share this announcement with colleagues, students, and relevant professional organizations.

Warm regards,

Puspa Raj Poudel, Ph.D.
